WITH a cheery wave, Brits Jason Lewis and Steve Smith pedal off into the Atlantic.

Yes, PEDAL – for Jason, 28, and 27-year-old Steve are on a three-year round-the-world trip in their bizarre pedal-powered craft. They left London in mid-July and made it safely to Madeira.

The Portuguese island, a few hundred miles west of North Africa, is a favourite starting point for Atlantic crossings. On Friday they cast off for Miami, braving the first ocean of their circumnavigation.

If they succeed, it'll be the first pedal-powered Atlantic crossing.
